Hot or not: music and celebrity news

Kamikaze: HOT

Eminem's latest album was a surprise to literally everybody...the 13 track album is a comeback from last year's "Revival" album. The giant diss track has been trending on Twitter since its release on Friday Aug. 31 and is taking over the charts on both Apple Music and Spotify. The diss track has also come with some heat including a response diss song from rapper Machine Gun Kelly. In our opinion, do not come at Eminem without some consequences.

Halsey & G-Eazy: HOT

FINALLY Halsey and G-Eazy have worked things out after their July split after rumors flooded around that he cheated on her. The couple came back out to the world after posting similar Instagram pictures to their stories which led to Halsey posting the first picture of them together since July. All we have to say is, mom and dad are back together and we fully support this. But if Halsey ever catches him cheating again... well refer to the "Him & I" lyrics for that one.

Kim Kardashian & Drake: NOT

"Stop trying to make fetch happen! It's not going to happen!" Stop trying to constantly put Kim Kardashian in the news. Coming from two VERY avid Kardashian watchers, stop for the love of all things Kris Jenner, putting Kim in the news. There is no way Drake and Kim were ever a thing...the only rapper she be loving is Yeezus. (Hoodie Allen reference if anyone gets that) Anyways, we constantly know what Kim is doing because she is always making headlines. The girl is a successful business woman, with a crazy empire and Drake is just out here trying to make music.

Kourtney Kardashian & Younes Bendjima: NOT

Yes, this couple might have been cute at first but we very quickly got over them. After the many Instagram posts of Kourt and Younes, we just want to see her and Scott Disick back together. I mean the girl has three kids with Scott....we need a makeup apology and a promise to get your act together and we need it now.

Blake Lively & Anna Kendrick in a Simple Favor: HOT

Two women you would not expect to be in a movie together, pair up for what looks like a dark and twisty film. The movie is about a mommy vlogger (Kendrick) digging for answers behind her bffs (Lively) disappearance from their small town. I can already think of two reasons of why I want to watch this.. hint it is because of the actresses.

American Horror Story: HOT

AHS is coming out with its eighth season on Sept. 12. The season called 'Apocalypse' is going to tie in with seasons one and three, 'Murder House' and 'Coven'. The newest season will also bring back AHS alumni including Jessica Lang, Lilly Rabe, Evan Peters and Taissa Farmiga.

Astroworld: HOT

Even though this album came out at the beginning of August, it is still tearing up the charts! The 17 track album features artist such as Stevie Wonder, The Weeknd, Drake, Frank Ocean and Juice WRLD. The most popular song seems to be SICKO MODE, and the song alone is climbing in the top 10 on the Billboard Hot 100 chart. This album is definitely a step up from his 'Huncho Jack, Jack Huncho' album that dropped in December of 2017.

6ix9ine: EHHHHHHHHHHH
SO...this is a maybe for many different reasons. 6ix9ine himself has proven to be a interesting human with a bad track record. He makes eh music BUT his recent single 'FEFE' featuring Nicki Minaj, is a banger. We literally cannot get over how good it is. It is a song that works for any mood: working out, doing homework, partying or when you are sad and need a pick-me-up. Whether your thoughts about 6ix9ine are good or bad, the song itself is a bop.
