It never fails that you will see at least a few superheroes roaming around the room during Halloween. The costume idea is so versatile that you can be anyone and either make your costume or buy it.

Sneak into your Halloween festivities this year in your ninja costume. Pretty much all you need is some spandex, a red belt, a black mask and a sword.

Pumpkins are always a safe option. As long as you have an orange shirt, you can paint a face on it. Or you could hit up Party City and get this costume.

Ahh the couple costume. Whether you're in a relationship or not, couples costumes can be...interesting. There are many different couple costumes you can do but this Peter Pan and Wendy costume is cute and easy to do.

Dressing as a vampire is always a safe bet if you're in a crunch for time. Throw some black and red together and get some plastic fangs and you're good to go! Can be used as a couples or individual costume.

Phi Psi and Kappa Sigma to host a “Turkey Trot” 5K

MIKE SERRATO
@PhiPsiAshland

On Nov. 17, the brothers of Phi Kappa Psi and Kappa Sigma will be holding our joint philanthropy event “Turkey Trot!”

This event will be a 5k or 3.1-mile walk/run that will be around campus. The event will start at 9:30 a.m. and will end at 10:30 a.m. with registration starting at 8:45 that morning.

All proceeds collected for this event will go directly to The St. Jude Children’s Hospital! If you are interested in signing up for our event, we will be tabling in the student center through November 12-16 in Convo from 11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m.-6:15 p.m. We will also accept registrations the day of the event as well. The first 50 people to register for the event will also receive a free t-shirt with registration, so hurry and act now! We hope that we will see you there! Contact Mike Serrato at mserrato@ashland.edu or Michael Wolfrum at mwolfrum@ashland.edu for more information.

If you have a story idea or want event coverage, you can email Bree Gannon at bgannon@ashland.edu
